Policy Workshop on Neuroinformatics in the Netherlands and the International Perspective to be held on Friday, January 30th, 2004

Building: ZonMw, Laan van Nieuw Oost Indië 334, 2593 CE The Hague
Conference room number: 170, first floor

Program

09.30 –10.00 Registration and coffee at the vide, 1st floor

Chairman: Jaap van Pelt

10.00-10.05   Opening by Edvard P.Beem, co-director ZonMw

10.05-10.30   Jaap van Pelt (Amsterdam, Netherlands)
              Introduction - OECD Global Science Forum Working Group on Neuroinformatics

10.30-11.00   David Willshaw (Edinburgh, UK)
              Neuroinformatics in the United Kingdom

11.00-11.30   Erik De Schutter (Antwerpen, Belgium)
              Neuroinformatics community building through Neuroinformatics WEB Site

11.30-12.00   Coffee break

12.00-12.30   Raphael Ritz (Berlin, Germany)
              WEB-based data sharing

12.30-13.00   L.O. Hertzberger (Amsterdam, Netherlands)
              *New developments and opportunities for Brain Data Bases in The Netherlands
              (E-science, Virtual Lab, Grid)*

13.00 -14.00 Lunch

14.00- 15.00 Discussion in 3 parallel sessions - 'Current state and future of Neuroinformatics in NL' (see: Discussion Groups and Inventories)
              (conference rooms 170, 166 at ZonMw and 313 and 307 at NWO)

15.00-15.30   Coffee/tea

Chairman: Fernando Lopes da Silva

15.30-16.30   Plenary session: reports of the 3 parallel sessions

16.30-17.00   Final discussion (see: Roadmap, Statements and Proposal for the INCF)

17.00-18.00   Farewell drink